Reason for Waiver Request:

I am a Maryland resident and a member of the U.S. Armed Forces stationed outside of Maryland. (complete section B)

Section B - To be completed by Maryland members of the U.S. Armed Forces assigned out of state

I certify that I am a member of the U.S. Armed Forces officially assigned to duty at the following military base

Name/Location of Base	Military Address	Maryland Tag #
-----------------------	------------------	----------------

I request an inspection waiver due to the above information. Upon returning to Maryland, I will have the vehicle inspected at an authorized Maryland safety inspection station.

Section C - To be completed by applicants for transportation to a Maryland State inspection station

Means by which to transport my vehicle to an authorized Maryland inspection station are unavailable. I understand that one 30 day temporary registration will be issued for the purpose of transporting the vehicle to and from an inspection station or weigh station or both.

Reminder: This vehicle must pass a MD safety inspection within 30 days. You must either submit the inspection certificate to the MVA (unless electronically submitted by the inspection station); or return the license plates. Failure to comply will result in the flagging of the registration and a tag pickup order placed against the vehicle.
